Jesus isn't coming back. Should Christians stop saying he is?

This is exactly what the Bible says it will be like and people will say when he does comes back.

(2 Peter 3:1-10) Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle (in both of which I stir up your pure minds by way of reminder), that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior, knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation." For this they willfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water, by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. (NKJV)

Jesus told his apostles they will all die before he comes

(Matthew 24:9-10) "Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake. "And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. (NKJV)

(John 21:18-19) "Most assuredly, I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself and walked where you wished; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish." This He spoke, signifying by what death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, "Follow Me." (NKJV)

Jesus also told his Apostles in parables that it would be like a man who took a long-time to return while he was in a long Journey

(Matthew 25:14) "For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. (NKJV)

(Matthew 25:19) "After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them. (NKJV)

(Luke 20:9) Then He began to tell the people this parable: "A certain man planted a vineyard, leased it to vinedressers, and went into a far country for a long time. (NKJV)

He described his coming as if it where bridegroom delaying

(Matthew 25:1-5) "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. "Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. "Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, "but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. "But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept. (NKJV)

As a master of a house delaying returning

(Matthew 24:48) "But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' (NKJV)

He also warns us about lots of people predicting the time of his coming and not to follow after them

(Luke 21:8) And He said: "Take heed that you not be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time has drawn near.' Therefore do not go after them. (NKJV)

Throughout church history there has been a number of people who predicted when Christ was to return only to be wrong:

William Miller (1782-1849) who stated Christ would return March of 1843 and then March of 1844

Charles Taze Russell (1852-1916) stated Christ would return in 1874 and the end of the world would be in 1914

Joseph Franklin Rutherford (1869-1942) stated Christ would return in 1918 and then in 1925

Herbert W. Armstrong (1892-1986) he stated Christ would return in 1936, 1943, 1972, 1975

Edgar Whisenant (1933-2001) he stated Christ would return in 1988 in a book he wrote called "88 Reasons why the rapture will be in 1988"

Harold Camping (1921-2013) he stated Christ would return in 1978 , September 6 , 1994, May 21, 2011 and then in October 21, 2011

But trust me Jesus is coming
